Alderman Hanson asks if they serve beer at their other locations?
Answer: Yes. They will have a TABC License as well.

Alderman Potts asks what their plans are for on and off premises alcohol consumption long-term?
Answer: It will be mostly on-premise. Food consumption (90%) is much higher than beer and alcohol consumption (10%), so the only off-premise sales would be in catering packs.

Chairman Barnhill follows-up by asking if the catering includes beer then?
Answer: Yes. However, it is only sold and distributed as a closed container.

A motion was made by Alderman Hanson, seconded by Alderman Potts to Approve the Beer Permit contingent upon receipt of the Certificate of Occupancy. The motion passed unanimously.

12. Discussion Of Ordinance 2022-49, An Ordinance To Amend Title 8, Chapter 2, Section 202, Of The Franklin Municipal Code Relative To Definition Of Premises For Consumption Of Beer

Sponsors: Bill Squires, Jessica Davey

This discussion started a couple months ago when representatives for The Factory were present getting their beer permit. They explained at the time that they did not have a specific place to purchase or consume beer. Rather, they wanted a customer to be able to purchase an alcoholic beverage from a restaurant in The Factory, and then walk around the halls and theater freely. The State law already allows for this for beer and alcohol, so the City is changing the terms for this in our code as well. It would include a "combo license" for participating businesses and clear labeling on the beverage, so an officer could easily identify where it was purchased.

Alderman Potts wants to clarify: with the "combo license," would non-participating businesses need to advertise that they do or do not permit the beverages in their establishment?
Answer: Ms. Billingsley assumes that The Factory would figure out how to make that clear from business to business.

Ms. Billingsley further reminds the Committee to consider the implications of this change to other venues, such as the mall.

Alderman Potts asked how that would work contractually?
Answer: The premises needs to be defined in each business's lease agreement. Therefore, participating businesses would need to amend their lease to clearly define that their premises now includes the suite and the common areas pursuant to the new lease. The intent of the permit would grant additional space to carry alcoholic drinks.

A motion was made by Alderman Potts, seconded by Alderman Hanson to Recommend Ordinance 2022-49 to the Board of Mayor and Aldermen for Discussion. The motion passed unanimously.

OTHER BUSINESS

Ms. Davey comments that last year the Board amended the Beer Ordinance relative to the annual privilege tax. It included new language that kept the due date to January 1st but gave a grace period until January 31st to pay the $100 annual privilege tax. On February 1st, revocation of the permit along with a $50 per day fine would go into effect. She states that all 236 of the City's business beer permit holders submitted the tax, and the City is in 100% compliance.

Alderman Potts asked how many in-person visits were made to remind the business of the tax?
Answer: Only 2 house-calls were made.

ADJOURN

A motion was made by Alderman Potts, seconded by Alderman Hanson to Adjourn the Meeting. The motion passed unanimously.

Meeting adjourned @ 4:29 p.m.

Business Plan

Franklin Bakehouse is a new business venture located at 100 East Main Street in Franklin, Tennessee. The business is family owned: Diane and Steve Bledsoe are the parents of Carly Atwood. Both Diane and Steve Bledsoe and Carly Atwood and her husband are the owners of this business. Steve and Diane Bledsoe currently own Gina's Stonefired Italian and Pizzeria—a current LBD licensee—and thus, are familiar with running and operating a full service restaurant. Rusty Atwood has currently works at Gina's and his worked at other restaurants in the past for years.

This business will operate as a full service restaurant and will target the local crowd of Franklin interests—providing food and beverages to an diverse crowd. The restaurant currently plans to be open seven days a week, Monday through Saturday from 7:00 am to 4:00 pm and Sunday from 8:00 am through 3:00 pm.

. All servers and mangers will be required to obtain their server permits from the TABC within sixty days of their employment. To obtain these permits, all servers and managers will receive server training courses certified by the Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission on the responsible service of alcohol and beer. These courses are taken at least once every five years as mandated by Tennessee statutes. There is a concentration on the prohibition of sale of alcohol and beer to minors and to intoxicated persons within these classes.

All customers appearing to be younger than thirty-five years of age will be carded.

If an altered or fake identification is considered to have been presented to the employee, then the employee will advise the customer that the police will be contacted. If the customer leaves the premises, said identification will be maintained until such can be delivered to local police or the Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission as a surrendered item.

Any customer who is determined to be on the edge of or over the line of intoxication will be given water and food to lower the alcoholic content in their system. If the customer refuses, efforts will be made to ensure and/or prohibit that individual from driving. A third party transportation will be contacted to drive the customer to their home if necessary.

In all situations, a manager or assistant manger will be present to assist and uphold an employee's actions.

The menu consists a large variety of food items—all of which are available anytime the business is open. These include breakfast items and lunch items, sandwiches, pastries, and entrees The restaurant anticipates having food specials during the course of the week to promote its food service.

The new owners intend to aggressively use social media advertising such as Facebook and other platforms to promote the business and its food service and specials.

Expanded hours could occur in the future, with the business extending their hours should demand warrant. The establishment will have approximately 78 seats at tables and the bar area. It is anticipated that at least fifty percent (50%) of the restaurant's gross sales will be derived from the sale of food items and is intended to serve at least fifty percent food sales.

Initially, the establishment will employ 24 individuals: 8 cook, and 16 servers The owners will serve as managers and general employees. All appropriate personnel will be trained in the responsible service and sale of alcoholic beverages.
