RITE AID POLICY

Alcoholic Beverage Sales

Policy Owner: Vice President, Store Operations
Policy # SOP.04.02
Effective Date: May 27, 2014
Replaces: January 2, 2007

SCOPE

This policy applies to all associates who work in a Rite Aid store location and to field management.

POLICY

Rite Aid is a caring and responsible community partner and is strongly committed to upholding all local, state and federal laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverages.

As part of our efforts to prevent underage customers from purchasing alcohol products, associates are required to ask for valid, government-issued photo identification from individuals attempting to purchase alcoholic beverages. A valid, government-issued photo ID is required for all purchases of alcoholic beverages.

Rite Aid expressly forbids the sale of alcoholic beverages to anyone under the age of 21. To be valid, the ID must NOT be expired and must show the customer's photo and date of birth.

Associates must accurately enter the customer's date of birth into the register to validate the legitimacy of the customer's age. Improper use or falsification of a customer's date of birth during the purchase of alcoholic beverages is a violation of Rite Aid policy, and serves as grounds for immediate termination.

PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS

Associates are required to ask all customers, every time for their valid, government-issued photo identification when they purchase alcohol products.

1. After scanning the alcohol product(s), the register will prompt for the customer's age.

2. Politely request a valid, government-issued photo ID from the customer.
   - If the identification provided does not include a photo and birth date, politely explain to the customer that a valid, government-issued photo ID is required to purchase alcoholic beverage and must include a photo and date of birth.
   - If a customer fails to provide a valid, government-issued photo ID, politely refuse the sale and explain that a valid photo ID is required to purchase alcoholic beverages.
     - If the customer appears over the age of 65, associates are authorized to contact the Manager on Duty who will verbally request the customer's date of birth to approve and complete the sale. This process is only to be used if and when, a customer refused to present their photo ID and reasonably appears to be over the age of 65.

3. Verify the customer purchasing the alcoholic beverages is the same person on the photo ID.
   - If the photo ID does not match the customer purchasing the alcoholic beverages, politely refuse the sale.

4. Carefully key the customer's date of birth in the register.
   - If the age is valid, the transaction will continue.

- If the age is invalid, the register will prompt: "This customer is too young to buy alcohol". The associate must politely refuse the sale, return the identification card to the customer and explain that Rite Aid requires customers to be at least 21 years of age to purchase alcoholic beverage.

5. Do not sell alcoholic beverages:
    - To anyone under the age of 21
    - To an adult for use by an individual under the age of 21
    - To anyone who appears intoxicated (call Manager on Duty for assistance)

6. Whenever necessary, ask for assistance from the Manager on Duty.

TRAINING & MONITORING REQUIREMENTS

Store Managers will ensure that associates adhere to federal, state, and local laws pertaining to the sale of alcoholic beverages to underage customers, in addition to the policy described within. Store Managers will also ensure that all newly hired and current associates complete training as required by the semi-annual schedule and new associate orientation requirements.

VIOLATION OF POLICY - DISCIPLINARY ACTION

It is Rite Aid's goal that through this policy, the CBT training on the policy and coaching, we have clearly communicated our expectations to every associate. Each of us is responsible for asking for valid, government-issued photo ID from all customers, for every transaction involving the purchase of alcoholic beverages, regardless of the age of the customer. Associates must ask for valid, government-issued photo ID, verify that the customer presenting the identification is the same person pictured in the identification, and properly complete the transaction.

Associates who fail to comply with Rite Aid policy, and/or any federal, state, and local laws pertaining to the sale of alcoholic beverages, which results in a fine or citation from a government agency, will result in immediate termination of his/her employment. Also, an associate who sells an alcoholic beverage to an underage customer, or who knows or has reason to believe that he or she has sold alcoholic beverages to be given to an underage customer, the associate's employment will be terminated, even in the absence of a fine or citation from a government agency.

If an associate commits any other type of violation of this policy, he or she will be subjected to disciplinary action up to and including termination of his/her employment.
