7-ELEVEN, INC. D/B/A TIGERMARKET #41067H ALCOHOL SERVICE POLICY

It is the policy of 7-ELEVEN, INC. (the "Company") that no minor (any person under the age of majority who is prohibited from being served alcoholic beverages under applicable law) or intoxicated person shall be served alcoholic beverages under any circumstances. Employees who willfully violate this policy will be terminated immediately. Any employee who negligently serves a minor or an intoxicated person will be counseled on proper service technique and will be terminated on the second violation of this policy.

Employees must request and review proper identification documentation (such as a valid state driver's license, passport or other form of identification issued by governmental authorities) for all persons ordering any alcoholic beverage. When attempting to illegally purchase alcohol, minors usually exhibit behavior that should be easily identifiable by a properly trained server or seller. As with anyone who is attempting a dishonest act, minors may appear anxious or nervous; stutter, stammer or confuse their words; avoid eye contact with the server or seller; appear overly or inappropriately friendly, confident, boisterous or outgoing.

When selling alcoholic beverages to the Company's customers, all employees shall take reasonable precautions to ensure that the person being served is legally permitted to purchase alcoholic beverages. Taking steps to prevent alcohol abuse in the Company's establishments can help protect the public from harm and keep you, as an employee, from being named in a liquor liability law suit.

As a seller of alcoholic beverages, the employee should know the laws and regulations concerning the serving and consumption of alcohol within licensed establishments. Selling alcoholic beverages to minors and/or to intoxicated persons is unlawful and may result in criminal penalties. Furthermore, if an intoxicated person, after leaving our establishment, should be involved in an accident, anyone who may be injured may file a lawsuit against you, the employee and/or the Company.

Follow some simple guidelines when serving alcohol and prevent this from happening to you or the Company. If someone enters the business and shows any sign of over-consumption of alcohol or remotely appears to be intoxicated, it is your job to make sure you do not sell alcoholic beverages to the individual. The following are some suggestions of alternative purchases if you suspect there is a possibility of intoxication of the customer:

- Offer or suggest the sale of protein food.
- Do not offer coffee or other caffeinated drink; this may cover the true extent of the patron's intoxication.
- Sell water or fruit juices.

Despite all your efforts, a customer may be intoxicated and should not be sold additional alcohol. If this occurs, every effort should be made to prevent the sale of alcoholic beverages without confrontation and embarrassment. Here are some suggestions to use when denying the sale of alcoholic beverages to a customer.

- Avoid a confrontation.
- Do not attempt any physical confrontation.
- Make the manager and all personnel aware of the problem.
- Suggest the sale of water and/or fruit juice
- Suggest an alternative form of transportation. If the patron insists on driving report this to your supervisor at once.

It is essential that a manager be aware of any potential situation where you believe there is a chance of an intoxicated customer or serving a minor. Remember, if a customer is intoxicated and is allowed to purchase alcoholic beverages and leaves the business and hurts someone, the authorities may likely hold you responsible along with the Company and management of the business. It is possible that you could be called to court and even be subject to criminal penalties. Always remember-there is no reason the sale of alcoholic beverages to an intoxicated customer should occur and absolutely no reason that a minor should be sold alcoholic beverages. Use “common sense” as well as what you have learned in your training with the Company, in your ABC Responsible Vendor Course and taking into consideration the above helpful hints.

If you follow these guidelines and act in a responsible manner, you are far less likely to be involved in any incident that may have an adverse effect on you, our customers and the Company.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in February, 2005.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section 509(a)(2).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Accidents and Emergency Situations

Report all accidents, no matter how minor they seem, to the manager on duty. In the event of an emergency, like an apparent injury or choking situation, notify a manager immediately. Managers are responsible for administering CPR, choking procedures or appropriate first aid.

Crime and Robbery

If you are ever involved in a robbery, DO NOT RESIST. Statistics show that people, who resist, are three times more likely to be injured than people who do not resist. The safety of you, your fellow employees and customers are our highest priority. Don't be a hero, always cooperate fully and do not resist!

Fire Protection

All employees must know the specific location and operation of fire protection in the Restaurant. The Restaurant is equipped with many fire-extinguishing systems in the ducts, hood, over the stoves and other cooking equipment that contains a dry chemical. They can be set off immediately by pulling the ring attached to each system. We also maintain hand held CO2 systems. Be very specific before setting off a fire alarm or notifying someone to take action. If the fire alarm sounds, assist guests to the nearest fire exit and out of the building immediately. Tell them the restaurant is under "Fire Alarm Status" and it is their responsibility to leave the restaurant through the nearest exit.

Alcohol Serving Policy

As a Restaurant that sells alcoholic beverages, we are committed to sensible, socially responsible consumption of alcohol. We help to ensure our customers' and other members of the community's safety by educating our employees on responsible service and management of alcohol. We want our customers to enjoy alcoholic beverages in moderation, but if a customer shows signs of drinking too much, a manager should become informed immediately. Employees, who serve customers, must abide by the Restaurant's policies on alcoholic beverage service:

1. We will not knowingly allow anyone on our staff that is under the legal drinking age to serve or dispense alcoholic beverages.
2. We will not serve alcoholic beverages to an intoxicated person.
3. We will not knowingly serve a person alcoholic beverages to a person under the legal drinking age. It is our policy to card anyone who appears to be under 30 years old.
4. We will offer nonalcoholic alternatives such as soft drinks, coffee, juice, etc.
5. The Restaurant will call a taxi service for intoxicated customers.

Proprietary & Confidential Information

It is illegal to steal copy or communicate or transmit a former employer's confidential or proprietary information. Proprietary information is defined as "the whole or any part of any scientific or technical information, design, process, procedure, formula, or improvement that has value and that the owner has taken measures to prevent from becoming available to persons other than those selected by the owner to have access for limited purposes." Our internal business practices, procedures and recipes are of great value to Judge Bean's BBQ.

Welcome To Our Team!!

Our continued success in providing the highest quality of food, beverages and service to our customers depends on having quality people like yourself and your fellow employees. We want you to enjoy your time here and are committed to helping you succeed in your new job.

We have prepared this handbook to answer some of the questions that you may have concerning Judge Bean's BBQ and its policies. This handbook is intended solely as a guide. Read it thoroughly! If you have questions about anything, contact a manager for assistance.

We hope you find your time with us to be an enjoyable and rewarding experience.

Once again, welcome to Judge Bean's BBQ!

Sincerely,

Bobby, Jenny, Andy and Cayce

Judge Bean's BBQ

Our Mission

Judge Bean's BBQ's mission is to enrich the lives of our guests, our employees and owners. We do this through superior quality food and beverages, legendary customer service, sales growth, cost controls and treating our employees like family. We believe that our employees are one of our most important resources and our success depends upon creating and retaining a staff capable of delivering an exceptional dining experience to every customer, every time.

Our Way of Doing Business

Judge Bean's BBQ's success depends on our people. Our restaurant can only prosper and provide opportunities for employment and growth when we continually improve ourselves, and the work we do. We recognize however, that success is not measured by sales; guest counts, and numbers alone. We are measured as much by the way in which we achieve our goals, as we are by the actual achievements themselves. We believe that a commitment to uncompromising values and integrity should always guide our decisions and actions as we pursue our goals.

The following are the core values that form the foundation of our measurement of success:

We believe in providing legendary service. Our goal is to provide the kind of unique and genuine sort of personal care and attention that our customers tell stories about.

We believe that good isn't good enough. We never stop trying to do it better, no matter how good we are. We constantly strive to "raise the bar."

We believe in honesty and trust. We work to build trust with others in each and every transaction and interaction. We recognize that honesty and trust form the bond that holds organizations and relationships together.

We believe in the ongoing training and development of our people. We see it as a worthy investment in the future of the restaurant and as a way of enabling our people to achieve their potential in whatever they do.

We believe our continued success depends on teamwork. We know that great achievements are only possible from helping and respecting each other.

We believe in a clean and orderly restaurant. From after shift cleaning to the little wipes and cleaning made throughout the day, a clean restaurant is an appetizing restaurant.

We believe in doing business in a professional and orderly manner. While we promote a relaxed atmosphere we expect your focus to stay on the job while you are here.

We believe in being responsible to others and to ourselves. We do what we say we are going to do when we say we are going to do it. We believe in personal accountability and avoid blaming others when things don't turn out as planned.

Employment Policies

Hiring

It is Judge Bean's BBQ's policy to hire only United States citizens and aliens who are authorized to work in this country. As required by law, employees will be required to provide original documents that establish this authorization within three days of their date of hire. If the documents are not provided within the three day period, we have no choice, under the law, but to terminate the employee until the appropriate documents are provided. Employees and employers are both required to complete a form furnished by the Department of Labor, form I-9. In Section 1 of form I-9, the information provided by the employee must be valid and authentic. If at any time during an employee's employment, it is discovered that any document used was invalid or not authentic, the employee must, by law, be immediately terminated.

Non-Discrimination

Judge Bean's BBQ is an equal opportunity employer. We will not tolerate discrimination based on race, sex, age, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, or disability. Employment decisions, such as hiring, promotion, compensation, training and discipline will be made only for legitimate business reasons based upon qualifications and other nondiscriminatory factors.

Age Requirements

All servers, as per the law, must be at least 18 years of age. Employees under the age of 18 must comply with all federal wage and hour guidelines, no exceptions. The required work permits must be supplied when applicable. No employees under the age of 18 years can take orders for or serve alcoholic beverages.

Judge Bean's BBQ

Orientation Period

You have been selected for employment and appear to have the potential to develop into a successful employee. However, we want the opportunity to begin the training period, get to know you, see how you fit in with your co-workers and determine if you are willing and able to carry out the responsibilities for the position in which you were hired. It's also important for you to get to know us and become familiar with how we operate to find out if this job is a good fit, therefore, we have a 2 week Orientation Period for that purpose referred to above. The 2 week period allows both you and the Company to see whether or not it's a good fit and if not, part company as friends. During the Orientation Period you will begin your training and be observed by management. Also, during this time if you feel you do not understand what's expected of you or that you need additional training, we encourage you to ask questions and seek additional help from our management staff.

Evaluations

All employees will receive verbal performance evaluations during the year. The evaluation process is intended to let you know how well you're performing and help you be more effective and productive. The evaluation also gives you the opportunity to share your thoughts about your performance and future goals with your manager. The evaluation process is an opportunity to identify accomplishments and strengths as well openly discuss areas and goals for any improvements. Depending on your position and performance, you may be eligible for a pay increase. Pay increases are not guaranteed. Rewards are based solely on a person's job performance and results.

Schedules

Schedules are prepared to meet the work demands of the restaurant. As the work demands change, management reserves the right to adjust working hours and shifts. Schedules are posted weekly. Each employee is responsible for working their shifts. Keep in mind the weekends are our most crucial shifts. You should arrive for your shift with enough time to make sure you're ready to work when your shift begins. We suggest that you arrive 10 to 15 minutes before your shift begins so that you have time to get settled and ready for your shift. You should clock in when your shift begins and be ready to start work immediately. Schedule changes may be allowed only if you find a replacement and get a manager's approval. To be valid, the manager must indicate and initial the change on the posted schedule. The restaurant usually requires high levels of staff on or around holidays, and other special events. We understand that you have a life outside of the restaurant and will always try to find a way to work with you on your schedule requests. Schedule request need to be submitted 2 weeks in advance. We do ask you to remember just how crucial each position is to the proper functioning of the restaurant. Please remember that even though we will try to comply with your requests, there is no assurance that you will get the requested time off.

Judge Bean's BBQ

Sexual Harassment

All of our employees have a right to be free from sexual harassment. Judge Bean's BBQ does not condone actions, words, jokes or comments that a reasonable person would regard as sexually harassing or coercive.

Definition of Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment encompasses any sexual attention, from either gender, that is unwanted and is defined as unwelcome advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submission is made an express or implied term or condition of employment or status in a class, program or activity.
- Submission to or rejection of the behavior is used to make an employment or educational decision (such as hiring, promotion or grading a course).
- The conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work or educational performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment for work or learning, including harassment in the workplace from an outside party, such as a vendor.

Sexual harassment may take many forms, for example:

- Physical assault.
- Direct or implied threats that submission to sexual advances will be a condition of employment, work schedule, promotion, job assignments, evaluation, wages or any other condition of employment.
- Direct propositions of a sexual nature.
- Comments of a sexual nature.
- Unnecessary touching, patting, hugging or brushing against a person's body.

Judge Bean's BBQ

- Remarks of a sexual nature about a person's clothing, body, sexual activity or previous sexual experience.
- Employees need to be concerned not only with the intent of their actions of this kind but also the effects; while sexual harassment involves repeated, unwanted sexual attention, persons involved in isolated or inadvertent incidents demonstrate insensitivity toward others. Repeated occurrences will be considered intentional violations of the policy.

Anyone who feels it necessary to discuss what may appear to be sexual harassment should report the harassment promptly to at least two people who are in a supervisory or management capacity. Your report will be kept as confidential as possible. A prompt and thorough investigation will be made. If a claim is substantiated, the Company will take immediate and appropriate action including discipline and possible termination.

Absences

All employees are expected to work on a regular, consistent basis and complete their regularly scheduled hours per week. Excessive absenteeism may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Disciplinary action taken because of absenteeism will be considered on an individual basis, following a review of the employee's absentee and overall work record.

- If you are going to be late or miss work, employees are expected to call and talk to a manager at least 2 hours before you are scheduled to work.
- Any employee who misses two or more consecutive days of work due to illness or sickness is required to submit a written doctor's release.
- Any employee who does not call or report to work will be considered to have voluntarily resigned employment at Judge Bean's BBQ.
- Prior to taking a leave of absence for purposes of vacation, personal leave, military or jury duty, or other planned absence, an Employee Leave Request must be made. An Employee Leave Request shall be submitted via email to (247andy@gmail.com) or in writing to a manager and consist of a name, dates requested off, and the reason for the request.
- Employee Leave Requests should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the scheduled leave date, unless the request is due to an unexpected emergency. The nature of the emergency should then be shared with an owner/manager.
- To return to work from an accident or medical leave, all employees must present a doctor's release.
- Any employee who fails to return to work at the expiration of a personal leave of absence will be deemed to have abandoned their job, unless Judge Bean's BBQ is notified of a reason, satisfactory to management, for not returning to work at the end of the leave of absence.

Judge Bean's BBQ

Tardiness

Employees must be prepared to start work promptly at the beginning of the shift. Always arrive at the Restaurant 10 to 15 minutes before your shift. Your scheduled time is the time you are expected to be on your job, not arrive at the Restaurant. Repeated tardiness is grounds for termination. If it is not possible for you to begin work at your scheduled time, call the Restaurant and speak to the Manager on duty.

Resignations

You are requested to give a two-week notice of your plans to leave the restaurant. A notice is important so that we have time to hire someone to take your place. Giving a two week notice is a professional courtesy and assures that you are eligible for re-hire and will not have a "left without resignation notice" on your employment record.

Health Policy

The purpose of the Food Employee Illness Reporting Policy is to ensure that all food employees notify the Owner/General Manager or other "person-in-charge" (PIC) when they experience any conditions listed so that appropriate steps are taken to preclude transmission of food borne illness or communicable diseases.

Payment Procedures

Time Clock Procedures

You should arrive at the restaurant 10 to 15 minutes before you are scheduled to start work. You may clock in within 5 minutes of the start of your shift. All hourly employees are given an employee ID number to clock in and out on the Restaurant's timekeeping system. Tampering, altering, or falsifying time records or recording time on another employee's ID number is not allowed and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Tip Reporting

As an employee of a Restaurant, all the tips you receive, whether in cash or included in a credit card transaction are taxable income to you. You are required, by federal law, to report and record your actual tips for each shift. At the end of each shift, tipped employees must disclose when they punch out at the end of the shift, the amount of credit card tips and total tips less any tips shared with any other employees. Your tips will be recorded and reflected in total on your paycheck stub. Endorsement of your paycheck indicates that you acknowledge that your tip information on the stub is accurate and correct. It is the employee's responsibility to comply with IRS requirements of reporting all your tip income. While you are responsible for reporting all of your tip income, the Restaurant may be required to allocate additional tip income to any tipped employee that does not declare at least 15% of their gross sales as tip income. We strongly encourage you to accurately report your tip income. This will reduce the chances of you being audited by the IRS and allows you to qualify for greater social security, unemployment and worker's compensation benefits.

Payroll Checks

Paychecks are available at the Restaurant after 2:00pm on the 15th and last day of the month.

Payroll Deductions

Your paycheck will indicate your gross earnings as well as deductions for federal and state withholding taxes and social security and Medicare taxes. Federal and state withholding taxes are authorized by you based on the information you furnished to us on form W-4. If you want an explanation of your deductions or if you wish to change them in any way please a Manager. As per state law, the Restaurant complies with court orders in connection to garnishments from employee paychecks as directed by the proper authorities. You will be notified of any court-ordered payroll deductions.

Change of Address

We ask that you report any address changes to management as soon as possible so your year-end statement of income and deductions, form W-2, will be mailed to the correct address.

Judge Bean's BBQ

Lost Paychecks

Report lost paychecks to Management. We will stop payment on the lost check and reissue you another check on the next payroll cycle. The reissued check will incur a deduction equal to the bank stop payment charge.

Judge Bean's BBQ

Worker's Compensation

Employee Meals

All servers will eat at half the menu price one meal per shift. Back of the house employees are allowed one free meal per shift.

Customer Service

Our restaurant exists only because of customers, and in particular repeat customers who voluntarily choose to return here and spend their money on our food and beverages. Without the customer we don't have a restaurant, they are the only reason we are here. As a result, taking care of our customers is our highest priority, in fact a privilege, never an interruption. At Judge Bean's BBQ the customer always comes first!

Customer Complaints

Nobody enjoys being the recipient of customer complaints, but complaints are to be expected as part of being in the hospitality business. Complaints can even be viewed in a positive light if they are handled properly. Complaints can give us insights as to how to make our Restaurant better, demanding customers force us to be our best and resolving complaints satisfactorily can even increase customer loyalty IF they are handled properly.

When faced with a customer complain:

- Don't get defensive and try to explain, get a manager.
- Remove the offending item immediately, and get a manager.
- Apologize for the problem and tell the customer you will take care of the problem, and get a manager.
- Oh and finally, always inform a manager of the incident.

Do everything you can to let the customer know you care and that this isn't the kind of experience you want them to have at our restaurant.

Judge Bean's BBQ

Telephone Courtesy

It is everyone's responsibility to answer the phone. Always answer the phone promptly, within two rings. Always answer in a friendly, polite manner: "Good (morning, afternoon, evening), JUDGE BEAN'S BBQ, how may I help you?"

Respond to any questions that you are absolutely certain of the answer. If you are uncertain, ask the person if you may put them on hold for a moment and quickly refer the call to a manager. Always thank the person for calling. Always ask the caller for their name when they ask to speak to a manager or customer.

Management / Employee Relations

Our managers are committed and trained to provide you with the tools and positive working environment for you to do your job to the best of your ability with minimal distractions. You will be treated with respect and dignity by all of our management personnel and we will try our best to recognize and reward your hard work and accomplishments.

We recognize there may be occasions for misunderstandings and problems to come up. We want to clear up these types of situations in a fair and timely manner and in order to do this we need your help in bringing them to our attention. We want you to know that "management is never too busy to be informed of work related problems, complaints or disputes of any employee." If you have such a problem, you should promptly talk to a manager. They will listen in an open, objective and courteous manner. We want to understand and solve the problem. If the problem is not resolved to your satisfaction, you should take up the matter with the Bobby or Jenny.

Every necessary action will be taken to resolve a problem or settle a dispute in a fair and equitable manner. As we said in the "Welcome Letter," we recognize our employees as one of our most valuable resource and we take all employee problems and complaints very seriously. No problem is too small or insignificant and each issue will be given the utmost attention and consideration.

Meetings

Staff meetings will be held on a regular basis for your benefit as well as for the Restaurant. Meetings are held for a variety of reasons and can include new menu offerings, upcoming promotions and events, training, policies, etc. Such meetings are treated as a shift and attendance is mandatory. Only management-approved absences will be accepted. Most meetings offer employees the opportunity to provide valuable input for feedback and provide suggestions to enhance our working environment and the operation of the Restaurant.

Judge Bean's BBQ

Teamwork

We cannot achieve our goals and provide the highest levels of service to our customers without working together as a team. Teamwork basically boils down to common courtesy and common sense. If a co-worker is overloaded and you're not, help them in any way you can. It's only a matter of time before they will return the favor. Pitch in to help a customer whether they are technically yours or not. If another employee hasn't quite caught on to something and you have, ask if you may suggest another way to do it. Genuine teamwork makes for a much more enjoyable and satisfying work experience and results in happier (and more generous) customers.

Communication

It is important for every employee to have a good sense of "what's going on" in the Restaurant. It is management's responsibility to keep everyone informed of ongoing changes and news affecting the Restaurant and our people. Such communication takes place primarily in pre-shift meetings, general meetings and by posting notices and information to the "bulletin board" located on the side of the freezer.

Safety

Judge Bean's BBQ is committed to maintaining a safe workplace for all of our employees. The time to be conscious about safety is before an accident happens. Safety is everyone's responsibility and is a regular, ongoing part of everyone's job. You will receive more specific, detailed information and training on safety issues as an ongoing part of your employment. However, here are some basic guidelines and safety rules to always keep in mind:

- Wipe up spills immediately.
- Never run in the kitchen, always walk carefully. Even when it's busy, take small steps and pay attention.
- Wear shoes with non-slip soles. They cost no more than standard shoes. Ask your manager about where to purchase them.
- Report defective equipment or tools to a manager immediately.
- Never operate equipment unless you have been trained how to use it properly.
- Pay special attention when using slicers. They are very sharp and move very fast.
- Wear nylon, no-cut gloves when cleaning slicers. If you don't have a pair, see a manager.
- Never try to catch a falling knife. Knives are easier to replace than fingers.
- Let people know when you're carrying anything hot. Don't be shy, yell out something like, "HOT STUFF COMING THROUGH."
- Don't put hot food or plates in front of small children.
- Use proper lifting techniques. Never lift too much. If it's uncomfortable, make two trips or get some help. Remember to always bend at the knees, lift with your legs, not your back.

Judge Bean's BBQ

Sanitation

We are obsessed with sanitation and food safety! Due to the nature of the restaurant business, it is ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL that EVERYONE follows safe food handling procedures. This is one area of the Restaurant where there is absolutely no compromise. NEVER take shortcuts on food safety and handling. Every day we are entrusted with the health and even lives of our customers. This is a huge responsibility, one that we must never take lightly. While you will receive additional and ongoing training on food safety issues following are some of the basic rules we ALWAYS follow and enforce: Keep your hands washed. Always wash your hands after using the restroom, smoking, touching your hair, eating, sneezing or coughing. If you use latex gloves, change them frequently.

Sanitize everything. Besides clean hands, use sanitizing solution to constantly keep counters, cutting surfaces, and utensils. This helps to keep food handling areas and preparation tools free of bacteria. Prevent cross-contamination. Cross-contamination occurs when raw meat comes in contact with other food that will be served without further cooking. For example, never place raw chicken on a cutting board and then cut vegetables for an uncooked product on the cutting board without first washing and sanitizing it first. The same for utensils like knives and portioning tools, always wash and sanitize them after every use. Keep food at the proper temperatures. Potentially hazardous foods like meat, poultry, dairy and fish should always be stored below 45°. Food that is cooking or in holding should always be above 140°. Bacteria count on food grows rapidly between 45° and 140° so it's imperative that our food products spend a minimum amount of time in the "temperature danger zone." Store food correctly. Raw meat should always be stored below cooked or prepared food. Raw poultry is always placed on the bottom shelf of the walk-in. Keep chemicals and cleaning products away from food products.

Dress Code

Judge Bean's BBQ is not a formal restaurant, and we understand that each person's dress style is an expression of their personality. We like your personality otherwise we wouldn't have hired you. If you think anything might be questionable pass it through one of the managers before wearing it to work.

RE: Life Time Athletic Alcohol Serving Policy – Franklin, TN

To Whom It May Concern:

Life Time Athletic and its employees take the serving of alcoholic beverage to its members very seriously and employ a strict and comprehensive training and certification to ensure no one under the legal drinking age has access to or consumes alcoholic beverages while visiting Life Time Athletic.

All Life Time Athletic/Life Café and Bistro team members where alcohol is served are required to take and pass, prior to beginning employment, the ServeSafe Alcoholic Beverage Server certification program and/or other state and locally approved programs. Each LifeCafe/Bistro team member is required to complete recertification annually.

It is the policy of Life Time Athletic to check the ID of anyone attempting to purchase alcoholic beverages from the LifeCafe/Bistro. Any patron who does not have a valid government issued ID will be denied service. It is predicted that food sales will make up roughly 70-80% of the sales at the Life Café/Bistro.

Alcoholic beverages may only be purchased from the indoor LifeCafe and outdoor Poolside Bistro serving counter. The Poolside Bistro seating and serving area is fenced and separated from the main pool deck area. Alcoholic beverages would not be sold anywhere else on the Life Time Athletic property.

A patron may only purchase a maximum of two (2) alcoholic beverages at one time. Should a patron decide to take their alcoholic beverage back to a poolside table or chair, their beverage is closely monitored by LifeCafe staff and removed promptly once the beverage is consumed or the patron leaves. For the safety of all guests, no glass bottles or containers are allowed in the pool deck area.

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

We have further determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in section 509(a)(2).

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. In the case of an amendment to your organizational document or bylaws, please send us a copy of the amended document or bylaws. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, if you are involved in an excess benefit transaction, that transaction might be subject to the excise taxes of section 4958. Additionally, you are not automatically exempt from other federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other federal taxes, please contact your key district office.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination unless the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, if you lose your section 509(a)(2) status, a grantor or contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act, or the substantial or material change on the Subject: Disucssion on theater beer service

Hi Christy,

My representative from AMC would like to come and make a presentation to the beer board on October 10 regarding service of beer in the non-dine in theaters at the Thoroughbred 20. Just to be clear, we are currently only serving beer in the dine-in theaters per our agreement with the beer board when they originally approved the license. Please let me know if we can be placed on the agenda for the 10th.

Thanks,
Matt
