Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

We have further determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in section 509(a)(2).

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. In the case of an amendment to your organizational document or bylaws, please send us a copy of the amended document or bylaws. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, if you are involved in an excess benefit transaction, that transaction might be subject to the excise taxes of section 4958. Additionally, you are not automatically exempt from other federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other federal taxes, please contact your key district office.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination unless the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, if you lose your section 509(a)(2) status, a grantor or contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act, or the substantial or material change on the

RESPONSIBLE SERVICE OF ALCOHOL STANDARDS

RESPONSIBLE SERVICE OF ALCOHOL STANDARDS

As a vendor of alcoholic beverages, it is imperative that we serve beverage alcohol in a responsible manner. We must take all the necessary precautions to ensure that underage Guests are not consuming alcohol. It is also our responsibility to ensure that those Guests who are of age and drinking alcohol do not become impaired. Serving alcohol responsibly means helping your Guests enjoy alcoholic beverages' pleasant aspects while safeguarding them from the unpleasant - and possibly dangerous - effects of drinking too much.

Responsible alcohol service is simply good service - serving Guests what they want in the safest, most enjoyable way possible. Our key tasks are to monitor Guests appropriately, serve them beverage alcohol and safely deal with any undesirable alcohol-related incidents. All Miller's Ale House employees are also responsible for the following tasks:

- Obeying laws prohibiting serving alcohol to minors and intoxicated individuals including drinks given to minors by an adult or parent.
- Not allowing Guests to go outside the building with alcohol.
- Following standardized alcohol service policies to avoid serving a Guest too much alcohol.
- Keeping track of how much a Guest drinks and observing any behavioral changes.
- Stowing or stopping alcohol service to Guests when necessary.
- Preventing an intoxicated Guest from driving away.
- Reporting any illegal drug activity to the proper authorities.

Please review with your Coach and ensure you have a full understanding of Miller's Ale House policy in regards to these 7 important areas of alcohol service:

- Recognizing false identifications.
- Recognizing when someone appears to be purchasing alcohol for minors.
- Identifying the signs of intoxication or alcohol-related impairment.
- Identifying situations that are likely to lead to extreme intoxication.
- Diplomatically refusing to sell to minors and intoxicated persons, identifying when circumstances are questionable.
- What to do about Guests that consume large amounts of alcohol.
- Dealing with potentially combative situations.

Helping Slow Down the Absorption of Alcohol

Drinking coffee, taking a cold shower, or exercising will not help the liver metabolize alcohol at a faster rate.

Allowing enough time to break down alcohol is the only way to remove alcohol from the body. So, Time is the only thing that will sober up a person. At best, drinking a non-alcoholic beverage or eating some food will slow the alcohol from being absorbed by increasing the amount of liquid in the system and giving the stomach something else to do.

The foods that work best at slowing alcohol absorption are fatty, high-protein foods. Sugars and carbohydrates digest quickly and do not help slow the absorption; they can actually speed it up! Very salty food stimulates thirst and can lead Guests to drink even more alcohol. Carbonated liquids pass through the stomach quickly and speeds the alcohol's absorption. Water dilutes alcohol and relieves thirst.

Examples of Ale House foods that help slow alcohol's absorption:

- Wings
- Zingers®
- Zinger Melt®
- Zingers® Mountain Melt
- Loaded Fries
- Fried Mozzarella
- Chicken Fingers

How Alcohol is Absorbed

When alcohol is swallowed, small amounts directly enter the bloodstream through tiny blood vessels in the mouth. So, alcohol affects the body immediately. Most of the alcohol flows to the stomach, where nearly 20% of the alcohol can be absorbed directly into the bloodstream. The other 80% passes to the small intestine where it is absorbed. Within 3 minutes of alcohol consumption, the brain can determine the amount of alcohol in the bloodstream. Once in the bloodstream, alcohol rapidly spreads through the entire body. Intoxication occurs in the brain and central nervous system. It alters the brain function, mood as well as reflexes.

Most of the alcohol has to be broken down by the liver. The liver metabolizes alcohol at a rate of about one drink per hour. Consuming more than one drink an hour will increase the amount of alcohol absorbed into a Guest's bloodstream. Alcohol can build up in the bloodstream and affect a Guest long after he or she has stopped drinking. A Guest can become impaired even after he or she has stopped drinking because of the way the body metabolizes the alcohol and they can actually become intoxicated while driving home. For that reason, the following is our last call policy:

Last Call - How late is last call on food

- Last call for alcohol is given 30 minutes prior to closing to allow enough time for the beverages to be consumed.
- Inform all your Guests that last call is being given.
- Guests may not order doubles, shots, pitchers or buckets.
- Guests may not take any alcoholic beverages to-go unless your location sells package beer but they CANNOT get a to-go cup and pour their drink into it.

WE MUST OFFER FOOD DURING ANYTIME THAT ALCOHOL IS OFFERED

What Do All Those Numbers Mean?

Proof:

Alcohol is rated by proof and percentage of alcohol. The percentage of alcohol can be determined by dividing the proof in half. For example:

- 80 proof liquor ÷ 2 = 40% alcohol.
- 100 proof liquor ÷ 2 = 50% alcohol.
- What percentage alcohol would a 50 proof liquor be?

Because of the proof/percentage of alcohol in different drinks, all of the following drinks contain the same amount of alcohol:

12 oz. beer = 4 oz. of wine = 1 1/4 oz. of 80-proof liquor = 1 oz. of 100-proof liquor

BAC:

The amount of alcohol in a person's bloodstream is known as Blood Alcohol Content (BAC).

The legal level of intoxication to operate a vehicle

Florida	0.08 BAC
Georgia
Illinois
Maryland
Massachusetts
New Jersey
New York
Ohio
Pennsylvania
Nevada	0.10 BAC

A BAC of 0.08 can cause a person to go into a coma

A BAC of 0.40 can cause death.

0.10 BAC

RESPONSIBLE SERVICE OF ALCOHOL STANDARDS

Why do people react differently to the same amount of alcohol?

The way people react to alcohol depends on many factors: how much they consume, how quickly they ingest the alcohol, the amount of food they have consumed, body size and weight, gender, mental state and if they have taken any medications.

A person's body size, fat-to-muscle ratio, and gender greatly influence the effects of alcohol. It takes longer for a large muscular person to react to alcohol than a small person. Therefore, a large person can generally consume more. Body fat does not absorb alcohol. Therefore, in a person with considerable body fat, alcohol will concentrate in the bloodstream. Women typically become intoxicated more quickly and with less alcohol than men because women are generally smaller than men; have a higher percentage of body fat and have less of the stomach enzyme that helps neutralize alcohol.

A person's mental state also influences the effects of alcohol. A person who is stressed, depressed, dieting, or fatigued may have a strong reaction to alcohol. Medications, both over-the-counter and prescription are another factor that can strongly influence the effects of alcohol. Combining alcohol with drugs can interfere with the body's ability to break down the medications, causing them to build up in the body. Illegal drugs are dangerous when mixed with alcohol. Alcohol usually increases the effects of the drugs. Do not serve a Guest that appears to be under the influence of drugs or medications.

A Manager must be involved any time a Guest is being cut off for any reason. Remain calm and friendly, and never be confrontational with a Guest which you are cutting off. This situation could escalate quickly. If you cut a Guest off, it is important to communicate this decision to all FOH staff members to ensure the intoxicated Guest does not attempt to order a drink from another Server or Bartender. Next is a chart that outlines the typical blood alcohol concentration of people of varying weight, based on the number of standard drinks he or she has consumed.

Carding Guests

- The legal drinking age is 21 years of age or older. However, Card everyone who looks under the age of 30.
- If anyone wants an alcoholic beverage and does not have an ID DO NOT SERVE THEM. Even if you know them and know that they are over 21. It is the law that they have an ID to be served!!
- You must have an ID for every drink ordered – If a Guest orders a drink for their friend because they are in the restroom, you cannot order the second drink until you see the second ID.
- Miller's Ale House accepts the following forms of ID:
 - State-issued driver's license.
 - State issued identification card.
 - Military ID.
 - Passport.
 - Foreign ID when ID is presented to the Manager on duty to compare to the corresponding ID in the International ID Checking Guide.

Check it Out

Take your time to look at each ID carefully and always look for the following information:

- Birth Date – this is one of the most commonly altered items on an ID.
- Expiration Date – an expired ID is not valid.
- Security Pattern – the pattern, lines, or hologram of the state outlined in the background or across the front should appear correct and unbroken.
- State Seal – this should be the proper size and in the proper location. On many IDs, the seal overlaps from the printed area onto the photo. There should not be a break in the continuity at this overlap.
- Color – check for the correct color of the colored areas.
- Size – Is the ID itself the correct size and shape?
- Coding – special coding denoting the ID owner's age should agree with the birth date on the ID.
- Signature – check for any alterations or forgery. If you suspect the ID is false, ask the person to sign his or her name and then compare the two signatures.

Immediately contact your Manager if you suspect illegal drug activity

Any sale or sharing of prescribed medication is against the law. If someone is selling or distributing any kind of illegal drugs or prescription drugs illegally it can cause us all harm. They could not only harm themselves but someone else. Furthermore, it is against the law and we could lose our liquor license which could cause us all to lose our jobs and our good reputation in the community. If you see or hear of any type of illegal drug activity whether it is a Guest, coworker or vendor report it to a Manager immediately or contact Human Resources. "Drugs don't work here."

Look for the following commonly used tricks:

- False picture, false dates, or other incorrect data – feel the ID and check for bumps or signs of alteration.
- Counterfeit card created with a camera, computer, and lamination equipment – know your IDs!
- Genuine ID issued to one person but used by another – Check the picture!!
- Skeleton keys or globes as the hologram – always fake.

Carefully observe the person presenting the ID and compare to the picture and physical description on the ID, especially height and gender. Feel the ID, checking for cuts, pinholes or improper lamination, including breaks in the lamination. Notice the Guest's appearance and behavior. Minors may act nervous – avoiding eye contact with employees, appearing ill at ease, avoiding adults, or giggling while ordering drinks. If necessary, question the presenter. Hold the ID and ask a few questions, such as:

- What is your address?
- What is your middle name?
- When were you born?
- How do you spell your last name?

If a minor is in Miller's Ale House with Guests over 21, be sure to observe the table and make sure other Guests do not serve the minor alcohol. IT IS NOT OK FOR A PARENT OR ADULT TO GIVE A MINOR ALCOHOL. WE ARE LIABLE IF THEY DO!!! If you see this happen or suspect anything, contact a Manager immediately.

Signs of Intoxication

After we have determined that the Guest is of legal drinking age, the work REALLY begins. Now we are responsible for making sure they and we ARE responsible.

People have different personalities, making a change in behavior more significant than the actual behavior. When alcohol reaches the brain, one of the first behavior signs is relaxed inhibitions. Relaxed inhibitions include:

- Becoming overly friendly.
- Becoming detached or quiet.
- Suddenly using foul language.
- Becoming loud and making rude comments.

As a Guest consumes more alcohol, the brain's control of judgment and emotions are affected. The next sign is impaired judgment and includes:

- Becoming angry, tearful, or extremely emotional.
- Complaining about the strength of a drink after consuming others of the same strength.
- Drinking faster or switching to larger, stronger drinks.
- Becoming careless with money.

After consuming a considerable amount of alcohol, a Guest's reaction time will have slowed down. Someone at this level may show signs of:

- Loss of concentration, memory, and the ability to think clearly.
- Drowsiness.
- Inability to focus eyes and loss of eye contact.
- Slurred speech.

Cutting Off Guests

When you feel a Guest is showing the signs discussed above, you must determine if the Guest is intoxicated and needs to be cut off.

Use the SIR method – Size them up, Interview them and Rate them.

S: Size up – Consider Guest's size, gender, body type, and ratio of body fat.

I: Interview – Observe behavioral signs and notice any behavioral changes. Talk to the Guest, make note. Was he or she drinking previously? Has the Guest eaten? What is the Guest's mental state? Does the Guest look tired or under the influence of medication? How are his or her movements? Is his or her speech slurred or irrational?

R: Rate – Rate each Guest's alcohol consumption level. Can the Guest be safely served alcohol? Has the Guest begun to show the effects of alcohol, should we slow their service of alcohol? Has the Guest already consumed too much, should alcohol service be refused?

If you feel a Guest has had enough to drink, it is your RESPONSIBILITY to cut them off.

- Immediately inform the Manager and all co-workers in the area as well as the Bartenders. The Guest may try to get a drink from someone else.
- Be firm but friendly, remind the Guest that you are looking out for their best interests.

Use the MAAM method – Move the alcohol, Attitude stays professional, Assert the law, and Move on.

M: Move the alcohol – Move the alcohol off of the table and out of the Guest's reach. This shows the Guest that you are not going to sell anymore alcohol to them.

A: Attitude stays professional – Remember to keep a good attitude. You must stay cool, calm, and professional.

A: Assert the law – Let them know that State Law does not allow you to sell alcohol to them.

M: Move on – Show them that you are serious, get a Manager involved and move on.

RESPONSIBLE SERVICE OF ALCOHOL STANDARDS

After slowed reaction time, a Guest may begin to have impaired motor coordination. A Guest will show the following characteristics:

- Staggering, stumbling, or falling
 - Bumping into things, knocking over stools
 - Inability to pick up money from the table or bar
 - Spilling drinks
 - Dozing or swaying when seated
- Here are some other common signs of intoxication to look for:
- Difficulty walking, bumping into things, leaning on bus stand or displays
 - Impaired hand eye coordination
 - Loud speech, annoying other customers
 - Being overly friendly with other customers
 - Sloppy clothes and appearance; buttons or zippers not correct
 - Arguing, confrontational, aggressive
 - Swearing, sexual remarks, or offensive language
 - Difficulty handling change, dropping keys

All FOH Team Members must be in compliance with all state, federal and local laws as to the requirements to be eligible to serve alcohol.

Please see your Head Coach to ensure you are in complete compliance.

Consequences

The Department of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms is a government agency that is responsible for enforcing the laws regulating the sale of alcohol and tobacco. This agency periodically sends undercover agents to check that we are doing our jobs. The ATF has been known to send an under aged person into the restaurant and request to purchase an alcoholic beverage. They can card any of your Guests at any time if they feel that your Guest may be a minor. If they card someone and they do not have their ID, even if the person is over 21, the ATF can cite us and YOU.

- If you serve a minor you will be terminated the first time.
- If you fail to card someone you can be terminated.

MANAGING ALCOHOL SALES

The City of Franklin Beer Board requires every Beer Permit holder to provide information in its application about whether the permit holder has a training program for employees regarding “alcohol sales management”, specifically, the sale of alcohol to minors. The privilege of selling alcoholic beverages is a serious responsibility. The owner and operator shall be held strictly accountable for any actions of his employees that violate any of provisions of the City of Franklin Municipal Code.

In the event that your company does not have an official training program, we have compiled some information to educate you and your employees on managing alcohol sales.

Prohibited Conduct

Alcoholic beverages may not be sold to anyone under 21 years of age.

Alcoholic beverages may not be sold to intoxicated persons.

Alcoholic beverages may not be sold to someone you suspect is buying it for underage people.

Alcoholic beverages may not be sold or consumed between the hours of 3:00 AM – 6:00 AM on weekdays or between the hours of 3:00 AM and 12:00 PM on Sunday.

(Restaurants only may serve on premises only beginning at 10:00 AM)

Checking Identification

If someone does not clearly appear to be 21 years old, ask for, look at and read their identification. If there is any question about the age or the form of identification, do not sell alcoholic beverages to that person.

Forms of identification that should be used are (1) A valid driver’s license
(2) A State issued photo ID.

Check the identification to make sure there have not been any alterations of any kind, especially to the date of birth, such as any erasures, type style that does not match, or damaged paper surfaces. Also check for signs of altered signature. Compare the photo on the identification and the physical characteristics shown on the identification.

Check for counterfeit drivers licenses. They are completely different from the actual license; however they are designed to look like the valid state license.

Possible actions to take

If the ID proves the customer to be underage or there is a doubt about legally selling to this person, it is best to move the product out of reach and sight of the customer and explain why you cannot legally sell the product with something like “I’m sorry, but the law says I cannot sell you alcohol if you appear to be (underage), (intoxicated), (using false ID), etc.

Stay in control. This will show the offender, as well as other customers, that you know what to do and you are in control.

Police may be needed in some cases. If the customer becomes violent and/or makes threats, call 911 for the police.

Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your request of Nov. 13, 2017, regarding the tax-exempt status of PILGRIMAGE FOUNDATION INC.

Our records indicate that a determination letter was issued in April 2017, granting this organization exemption from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Our records also indicate this organization is not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because it is described in section 509(a)(2).

Donors may deduct contributions to this organization as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to the organization or for its use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file. We will publish a list of organizations whose tax-exempt status was revoked under section 6033(j) of the Code on our website beginning in early 2011.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown above.
