ID Check – Responsible service is more than just checking IDs; it goes much deeper than that. It extends to recognizing someone that may be overserved before it is a detriment. The foundation of our responsible service plan begins with education and training. Our management team is comprised of individuals who have all received extensive training and are current holders of certificates of alcohol management as well as safe-serve certificates for sanitary food service. We build on that foundation with online videos, written policies/procedures, and face to face training with our staff.

Priding ourselves in keeping ahead of the technology curve we utilize a modern approach to verifying identification. Already utilizing an iPad driven points of sale system, we took it further, having a program developed specifically for us and incorporating it on the same iPad. This software is an ID check system that quickly and securely verifies whether the ID submitted is valid, out of date or a fake. The speed and accuracy that our program offers allows for ID verification at the point of sale for faster line turns and greater patron enjoyment of the main reason for attending. THE MUSIC!

Wrist Banding – Once age verification is complete, of age participants are then wrist banded by our staff; To issue a wristband to a patron wishing to purchase alcoholic beverages staff MUST follow these steps:

1. Ask the patron if they are 21 years of age or older;
2. Ask to see their government issued I.D. (Driver's License, Military I.D., Passport) and check that they are born on or before today's date;
3. Perform the Age ID verification to ensure the ID is valid;
4. Apply the wristband securely to the patron. Staff is instructed to NEVER give the wristband to the patron to apply themselves.
5. Patron can then display that wristband for the rest of the festival.

NO I.D. = NO WRISTBAND

However, just because someone has been banded does not mean they will be served. All staff are instructed to check again if there is any question as to the age and to follow protocol if someone exhibits the signs of over service. Staff also has the right to refuse service. Additionally, servers are not permitted to serve more than two alcoholic beverages per person per transaction. Below are a few examples of what instruct staff to look for if they are concerned the patron is over served:

1. Red / bloodshot eyes, flushed face
2. Odor of alcohol
3. Loud, slurred, rambling or disjointed speech
4. Lack of eye-hand coordination / spilling drinks
5. Lack of balance / unsteady on feet / swaying / staggering
6. You recognize the individual as one to whom you have served several beers or wine to already
7. Loss of train of thought / difficulty in paying attention
8. Fumbling change / difficulty counting money or paying
9. Difficulty opening doors
10. Rudeness / aggressions / belligerent / argumentative / offensive / bad tempered / physically violent / disorderly / exuberance
11. Using offensive language
12. Annoying / pestering others

13. Overly friendly
14. Loss of inhibition
15. Inappropriate sexual advances
16. Drowsiness / sleeping at bar or table
17. Vomiting
18. Drinking rapidly

Concession Staff – We partner with experienced non-profit community organizations to staff bars selling beer, wine, soda, and water. This really goes a long way to fulfilling our community-first incentive. It pumps much needed funds into worthwhile causes and brings other great benefits to these organizations. Their inclusion builds community support for the event. On Spectrum's dime, we donate money to the organizations for every beverage sold. This creates a strong, motivated group who are there for the right reasons.

Below is an example of a note we recently received demonstrating the impact we have on the communities we visit.

"On behalf of all the kids, parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles and all the people that support the Franklin County Soccer Association in Winchester, TN, I want to thank you. Our recreational soccer league has grown by leaps and bounds thanks to Spectrum. Missie gave us the opportunity several years ago, on a last minute notice to help raise money for our County soccer league by letting us man a beverage tent at Bonnaroo. We are forever thankful for that opportunity, I can't stress that enough!!!! We have gone from 200 kids and 2 so called soccer fields with porta-potties and serving concessions out of igloo coolers to 4 full size soccer fields with top of the line Bermuda grass and a permanent concession stand with real bathrooms and we currently serve around 500 kids!!!!!! We could have never accomplished this without the opportunity to let us work with you during Bonnaroo. We plan on continuing to update our complex to be the best one in Middle Tennessee."

For locations serving spirits, we hire professional bartenders, again who must be ABC certified. Due to the number of shows we do, we have a large stable of responsible, experienced and eager-to-please bartenders. We know how important it is that the bartenders and servers buy into the idea that they are part of the show itself, to create a better experience for the guests! We all know that with a higher quality of servers, there will be a higher quality of service. The human element is very important to us, as it is to you.

We extensively train them through online video, written information and tests, and we hold in-person, on-site training the week leading up to the shows to ensure each individual understands our systems and responsible service of alcohol. Over the years, we have been able to develop relationships with the groups and bartenders who have proved to be the most professional and hardest working.

All staff, whether community organizations or hired, must be of legal serving age due to the presence of alcohol in the concession locations. The only exception to this rule is if they are working a non-alcoholic beverage stand.

We utilize two-way radios for every member of our staff and every beverage stand so that the entire team is always in constant communication and needs can be handled quickly and efficiently.

Management Staff – Management staff are all current employees, not day laborers or anything of that nature. They are salaried employees who understand our culture and our goals. We have a team dedicated to music festivals that we travel with from event to event. They are all experienced and well versed in our processes and procedures. They remain in their designated booth or tent during the entire event to assist the servers and customers with any questions or difficulties they may be having. They only leave the area to retrieve more product should some brands or flavors begin running low.

Concession Management staff is usually assigned two to four locations to oversee. In addition to being equipped with two-way radios, they are giving a utility cart to transport product in safe and controlled manner.

Alcohol Controls – As mentioned earlier, any of-age patron purchasing alcoholic beverages is limited to no more than two units per transaction. All alcoholic beverages are stored in our compound, in a container or truck, under lock and key. In addition, we assign a manager to this area to sign in and out all product that is being dispersed to the concession locations during the event.

All concession stand deliveries are immediately counted down and inventoried upon arrival, with that information being transferred to the “stand sheet” / the stands inventory sheet. Each stand receives specific load in numbers and inventory is taken at the beginning and end of the day. If more product is brought, it is written down, and the same if product is taken away.

Every truck and storage container is counted down daily as well. Inventories are turned into our finance team who check the totals sold against sales for the stand.

By signing below, I hereby state that I have THOROUGHLY read and UNDERSTAND the information herein in regards to the safe service of alcohol.

Employee Coaching Tips:

The primary legislative purpose of the Alcohol Server and Responsibility Act of 1995 is to prevent intoxication-related deaths, injuries, and other damages through responsible serving practices and awareness.

What does this mean for you?

- Knowing and following the laws which govern the industry in which you are employed is your responsibility. Claiming ignorance if a problem arises from your service or sale of alcohol is not a defense in the eyes of the law.
- Under Third Party Liability, servers can be held liable for a guest causing injury to themselves or others if it can be proven that the party involved was served alcohol illegally (minors or obviously intoxicated) or negligently (carelessly, irresponsibly, without level of care).

What can you do?

- Good ID checking practices: everyone should be carded, regardless of appearance, even if they have already been served by someone else or been sold to on previous occasion. You have the right to refuse service or ask for additional documentation if you are not satisfied with their identification.
- Condition & consistency - if the ID is difficult to read, and inconsistent with the Driver's License Guide Book, you can refuse to accept it.
- Ownership - does the ID belong to the person using it?
- DOB - make sure that you know what day someone must be born on to be served alcohol.
- Expiration Date - it is against the law to sell alcohol to someone with an expired ID, so always check the expiration date.
- Seals and Signatures - these will be consistent across every ID issued from that state.
- Are there signs or impairment or intoxication? Have they already been drinking? If so, you may refuse service. If the guest is displaying any signs of impaired judgement or coordination, it is likely that they are intoxicated and should be refused service.
- High risk situations - bachelor parties, fraternity & sorority groups, women, known alcoholics, young drinkers (21-25). Pay extra attention to these groups, as they are more likely to experience alcohol intoxication quickly.
- What is the mood of the guest? What is their condition and size?

Set the Pace

- Serve water with the first round of drinks and endeavor to keep them full.
- Provide a MAFIAoZA's Franklin menu.
- If a guest hesitates in ordering, offer non-alcoholic suggestions.
- Note the guest's reaction to drinks - are they too strong?
- Serve only one drink at a time.
- Never give away drinks.
- Never "keep'em coming."
- ALWAYS get a manager if you are concerned about a guest's intoxication.

Note: This training policy is part of the MAFIAoZA's Franklin Employee Handbook that each employee receives upon their employment.

Policy Title: Beverage Department Policy
Department: Food & Beverage	Effective Date: 6/1/2019
Hotel Revision Permitted: ☐ Yes ☒ No	Revision Date:

Policy Guidelines

I agree to support the following Valor Hospitality Partners, LLC policies regarding the sale of alcoholic beverages. I understand this document will be part of my permanent personnel file.

1. No bartender, server, or manager will be allowed to begin work without being certified by an agency approved trainer and producing a copy of the certification to the hotel manager, unless the state where the associate is working does not mandate certification.
2. All bartenders, servers, and managers must renew his/her certification PRIOR to its expiration.
3. Hotel guests can have a drink delivered to their room but cannot leave the building with a drink.
4. ABSOLUTELY no one under 21 years of age is to be served.
 - a. Anybody who looks under the age of 50 years old will be carded/requested to provide identification.
 - b. The identification must be checked thoroughly (dates, condition of card edges, loose and unglued, etc.) and must be removed from the wallet.
 - c. The only identification acceptable is state issued identification such as:
 - i. Valid photo state-issued driver's license
 - ii. Valid photo state-issued ID card
 - iii. U.S. active-duty military ID
 - iv. Valid passport
 - d. If the identification appears falsified, call a manager immediately.
5. No customer is to be served who is visibly intoxicated.
6. Alcoholic beverages will no longer be served fifteen minutes prior to closing time.

I will also remain aware of customers who reach a point of over-intoxication. Every associate, managers included, can refuse service. An employee who makes this decision should inform the Manager on Duty, report it in the log book, and use the following cut-off guidelines:

1. Clearly tell the customer you can no longer serve him or her;
2. Give the customer clear reasons why you are cutting them off, without judgement; and
3. Stand firm in your decision and if the customer begins causing trouble, call a manager immediately.

If you pick up on early signs of intoxication, there are steps to take to slow down the customer drinking. These steps are referred to as 'reasonable efforts' to buy time, which is the only manner in which a person will become sober.

1. Provide refills only on request
2. Always measure the alcohol you serve
3. Suggest coffee or a soft drink
4. Suggest food
5. Ask the customer's friends for help
6. Offer alternative transportation
7. Ask for support from a manager or security

As a responsible member of the hotel team and of the community, I understand it is my responsibility to encourage moderation in order to prevent alcohol-related accidents and promote the safety and wellbeing of my customers and co-workers.

THIS POLICY IS TO BE POSTED WITHIN VIEW OF HOTEL ASSOCIATES TO PREVENT THE SALE, SERVICE OR CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES BY OR TO MINORS AND INTOXICATED PERSONS, AND EXPRESSES THE STRONG COMMITMENT BY THE LICENSED PERMITTEE AND THE HOTEL TO PROHIBIT SUCH SALES, SERVICE OR CONSUMPTION.

Supporting Documents/Statements

I have read and understand the above policy in its entirety. Failure to comply with this policy will result in progressive disciplinary action up to and including termination.
