Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is in response to your correspondence of March 29, 2002, notifying the Service of a change to the address of your organization. Our records have been updated to reflect the address as shown above.

Our records indicate that a determination letter issued in March 1991, granted your organization exemption from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. That letter is still in effect.

Based on information subsequently submitted, we classified your organization as one that is not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because it is an organization described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

This classification was based on the assumption that your organization's operations would continue as stated in the application. If your organization's sources of support, or its character, method of operations, or purposes have changed, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on the exempt status and foundation status of your organization.

Your organization is required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, only if its gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of the organization's annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $20 a day, up to a maximum of $10,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

All exempt organizations (unless specifically excluded) are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more paid to each employee during a calendar year. Your organization is not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, these organizations are not automatically exempt from other federal excise taxes.

Donors may deduct contributions to your organization as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to your organization or for its use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

[REDACTED]

Your organization is not required to file federal income tax returns unless it is subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If your organization is subject to this tax, it must file an income tax return on the Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your organization's present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

The law requires you to make your organization's annual return available for public inspection without charge for three years after the due date of the return. You are also required to make available for public inspection a copy of your organization's exemption application, any supporting documents and the exemption letter to any individual who requests such documents in person or in writing. You can charge only a reasonable fee for reproduction and actual postage costs for the copied materials. The law does not require you to provide copies of public inspection documents that are widely available, such as by posting them on the Internet (World Wide Web). You may be liable for a penalty of $20 a day for each day you do not make these documents available for public inspection (up to a maximum of $10,000 in the case of an annual return).

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your organization's exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it with the organization's permanent records.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

This letter affirms your organization's exempt status.

Sincerely,

John E. Ricketts, Director, TE/GE

Prohibited Conduct

Alcoholic beverages may not be sold to anyone under 21 years of age.

Alcoholic beverages may not be sold to intoxicated persons.

Alcoholic beverages may not be sold to someone you suspect is buying it for underage people.

Alcoholic beverages may not be consumed between the hours of

3:00 AM – 6:00 AM on weekdays or between the hours of 3:00AM and 12:00 PM on Sunday.

(Restaurants only may serve on premises only beginning at 10:00 AM)

Checking Identification

If someone does not clearly appear to be 21 years of age, ask for, look at and read their identification.

If there is any question about age or the form of identification, do not sell alcoholic beverages to that person.

Forms of identification that should be used are (1) a valid driver's license or (2) a State issued photo ID.

Check the identification to make sure there has not been any alterations of any kind, especially to the date of birth, such as any erasures, type style that does not match, or damaged paper surfaces. Also check for signs of altered signature. Compare the photo on the identification and the physical characteristics shown on the identification.

Check for counterfeit driver's licenses. They are completely different from the actual license; however, they are designed to look like the valid state license.

Possible actions to take

If the ID proves the customer to be underage or there is a doubt about legally selling to this person, it is best to move the product out of reach and sight of the customer and explain why you cannot legally sell the product with something like "I'm sorry, but the law says I cannot sell you alcohol if you appear to be (underage), (intoxicated), (using false ID), etc.

Stay in control. This will show the offender, as well as other customers, that you know what to do and you are in control. Police may be needed in some cases. If the customer becomes violent and/or makes threats, call 911 for the police.
