INFORMATION SHEET
for
BEER PERMIT APPLICATION

Permits shall be issued to the owner of the business, whether a person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, syndicate, or association.

A permit is valid only for the business of the owner named in the permit.

If the business operates through a managing agent and the owner changes managing agents, it shall notify the Beer Board in writing within 30 days of the change and shall supply the name, address, drivers license number and phone number of the new managing agent. (For your convenience, a blank "change of managing agent" form has been provided in the packet).

Periodic renewal of beer permits is not required; however, there will be annual inspections for the on premises permit holders.

A permit holder must return a permit to the county or city that issued it within fifteen (15) days of termination of the business, change in ownership, relocation of the business or change of the business name. A change in ownership occurs for a corporate owner when at least fifty percent (50%) of the stock of the corporation is transferred to a new owner.

A permit is only for a single location and is valid for all decks, patios, and other outdoor serving areas that are contiguous to the exterior of the building in which the business is located.

Where an owner operates two or more restaurants or other businesses within the same building, the owner may, in his or her discretion, operate some or all of such businesses under the same permit.

The City of Franklin also has a liquor privilege tax for selling alcoholic beverages on premises. The tax is at the same rate as the State in the manner prescribed by State law and shall be collected annually.

A copy of the sales tax certificate must be provided within 10 days of approval of the permit. If you already have it, please submit with application.

Please note that all questions must be answered on the application. Failure to do so will only delay the process. The Beer Board will not approve any incomplete applications.

Application Signature Page

I hereby make application to the City of Franklin Beer Board for a beer permit.

The signing of this application acknowledges that I am aware of the laws prohibiting the sale of beer to minors.

I hereby certify that no person having at least a 5% ownership interest, nor any person to be employed in the distribution or sale of beer in my establishment has been convicted of any violation of the beer or alcoholic beverage laws or any crime involving moral turpitude within the past 10 years.

I understand that making false statement in this application shall precipitate forfeiture of permit and holder shall not be eligible to receive any permit for a period of ten years.

I am also aware that I shall not be issued a permit or my permit shall be revoked if my business location causes traffic congestion or interferes with schools, churches, or other public places of public gathering, or otherwise interferes with public health, safety and morals.

Age-Restricted Products Policy and Procedures

7-Eleven, Inc. Corporate Stores Only

All 7-Eleven, Inc. store employees must completely comply with federal, state, county, city laws and ordinances regulating buying and selling age-restricted products. Age-restricted products include alcoholic beverages, non-alcoholic beer, tobacco, lottery tickets, Lotto tickets and inhalants. Any person who will-fully and unlawfully sells or furnishes age-restricted products to a person who is not of lawful age may become civilly and/or criminally liable for such action. If a 7-Eleven, Inc. store employee violates age-restricted product laws, that person could incur significant personal fines, cause the store to lose its license to sell alcoholic beverages, or lose the store's license to sell age-restricted products.

All 7-Eleven, Inc. store employees must adhere to the following:

- Employees are prohibited from selling age-restricted products to persons under the age of the applicable law.
- Employees must properly verify the customer's identification when a customer presents age-restricted products for purchase.
- The identification card must be valid government-issued photo iden-tification such as a driver's license (DL) or identification (ID) card.
- When checking identification, employees must verify BOTH the birth date (month, day, year) and the photo.
- If the DL or ID card is an out-of-state identification card, the employee must call a supervisor to verify identification. If the DL or ID card is in any way questionable, the employee must notify a manager.
- All 7-Eleven, Inc. store employees must request identification prior to selling an age-restricted product to all customers who look to be under the age of 30.
- Employees must also use proper communication and actions when refusing age-restricted product sales to a customer due to lack of valid DL or ID card, intoxication, evidence of second-party sale, or other restrictions.
- If there is a group of people, employees must verify the person buying the age-restricted product's identification and only accept money from that per-son. If another person hands money to the employee, the employee must verify that person's identification.
- Employees are not permitted to over-ride the system procedures.

Government regulations govern the use and sale of age-restricted. In your store, the age requirements are as follows:

The minimum age to purchase tobacco is_____. .

© 2016 7-Eleven, Inc.

The minimum age to purchase beer and wine is_____.

The minimum age to purchase lottery products is_____.

The minimum age to purchase restricted medications is_____. .

The minimum age to purchase products categorized as Inhalants is_____. .

A conviction for the illegal sales of age-restricted products could result in a fine for the employee. A store employee who sells age-restricted products without properly checking identification will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

If a 7-Eleven, Inc. store employee knowingly sells or attempts to sell age-restricted products to a minor, the employee's employment will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Employee's Signature Date

Employee's Name Employee Store Number

I have received, read and understand the Age-Restricted Products Policy and Procedures. I agree to comply with the Age-Restricted Products Policy and Procedures. I understand that if I do not comply with the Age-Restricted Products Policy and Procedures, I will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

ALCOHOL AWARENESS POLICY – ALL States

We are committed to serving alcohol responsibly. You must take all reasonable steps to prevent underage drinking, overserving and guests leaving North and driving under the influence of alcohol.

THE LAW

- The legal drinking age is 21 in all states.
- Do not serve alcohol after the state specified time which alcoholic beverages may not be consumed.
- Third party liability laws read that the server of alcohol and the restaurant establishment are held liable when a guest that consumes alcohol leaves the premises and then causes injury or death to himself/herself or someone else. The law requires that a server make "reasonable effort" to prevent intoxication in guests, prevent alcohol sales to minors, and intervene if a guest does become intoxicated.

IDENTIFICATION

As a server, you must make certain that the person you are serving is of legal age. You must card anyone who appears under 30 years of age. Notify a manager if you have any problems with this request.

Acceptable Forms of ID

1. Valid driver's license.
2. Valid state issued ID card.
3. U.S. active-duty military ID card, 4. Valid passport.

Steps to Carding

1. Ask the guest to see their ID.
2. Determine whether the ID is valid by:

a) Checking the birth date.

2018 On or before today's date 1997
2019 On or before today's date 1998
2020 On or before today's date 1999

b) Checking the expiration date.

c) Looking at the overall condition of the ID.

UNDERSTANDING INTOXICATION

By definition, intoxication occurs when the body takes in more alcohol than it can safely process, thereby creating both physical and mental impairment. It takes approximately 1 hour to remove 1 drink from the body.

There are two common ways to assess a guest's level of intoxication.

- Count the number of drinks you serve them.

• Observe the guest's behavior.

Behavioral Cues

The effects of intoxication vary from person to person. It is important to take time to talk to guest when they arrive in the restaurant and observe their behavior. There are four physical and behavioral signs of intoxication that you should be familiar with;

1. Relaxed Inhibitions – the guest becomes talkative, relaxed, over-friendly, loses self-control, makes rude comments, and sometimes displays mood swings.

2. Impaired Judgment – the guest may complain about the strength of a drink after having consumed others of the same strength, may begin drinking faster or switch to larger or stronger drinks. The person may also be irrational or be argumentative, may also become careless with money (buying drinks for strangers).

3. Slowed Reaction Time – the guest's eyes may appear glassy, unfocused, they may be unable to concentrate, lose their train of thought or become forgetful.

4. Impaired Motor Coordination – the guest may stagger, stumble, fall down, or bump into objects. They may spill drinks, miss their mouths, may drop items, or be unable to pick up objects.

NEVER SERVE A GUEST IF THEY ARE DISPLAYING ANY OF THE ABOVE SIGNS.

RESPONSIBLE ALCOHOL SERVICE

It is your responsibility to ensure that our guests do not over consume alcoholic beverages in our restaurant. Use your manager to assist you in your efforts to prevent over consumption. Do not attempt to handle the situation by yourself. Notify a manager immediately if a particular person or group is consuming a good amount of alcohol and you are concerned about probable over consumption. Be sure to keep track of the amount of alcoholic beverages you are serving to guest.

I hereby make application to the City of Franklin Beer Board for a beer permit.

The signing of this application acknowledges that I am aware of the laws prohibiting the sale of beer to minors.

I hereby certify that no person having at least a 5% ownership interest, nor any person to be employed in the distribution or sale of beer in my establishment has been convicted of any violation of the beer or alcoholic beverage laws or any crime involving moral turpitude within the past 10 years.

I understand that making false statement in this application shall precipitate forfeiture of permit and holder shall not be eligible to receive any permit for a period of ten years.

I am also aware that I shall not be issued a permit or my permit shall be revoked if my business location causes traffic congestion or interferes with schools, churches, or other public places of public gathering, or otherwise interferes with public health, safety and morals.
