- The City of Franklin also has a liquor privilege tax for selling alcoholic beverages on premises. The tax is at the same rate as the State in the manner prescribed by State law and shall be collected annually.
- A copy of the sales tax certificate must be provided within 10 days of approval of the permit. If you already have it, please submit with application.
- Please note that all questions must be answered on the application. Failure to do so will only delay the process. The Beer Board will not approve any incomplete applications.

AMENDMENT XVIII Alcohol Service Policy

POLICY: AMENDMENT XVIII prohibits any minor under the age of twenty-one or any intoxicated person to be served any alcoholic beverages under any circumstances. Employees who violate this policy will be terminated immediately. Employees will obtain the required Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission server permit within sixty (60) days of employment and will take the mandatory five (5) hour server training course on the responsible sale and service of alcohol as required by the Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission. When serving alcoholic beverages to customers, all employees shall take reasonable precautions to ensure that the person being served is legally permitted to purchase alcoholic beverages. Taking steps to prevent alcohol abuse in this business can help protect the public from harm and keep you, as an employee, from being named in a liquor liability law suit.

For any customer that appears under the age of thirty-five (35), employees must request and review a valid governmental identification (such as a valid state driver's license, passport or other form of identification issued by governmental authorities). When attempting to illegally purchase alcohol, minors usually exhibit behavior that should be easily identifiable by a properly trained server or seller. As with anyone who is attempting a dishonest act, minors may appear anxious or nervous; stutter, stammer or confuse their words; avoid eye contact with the server or seller; appear overly or inappropriately friendly, confident, boisterous or outgoing.

Take possession of the governmental id and as you are talking to the customer, verify that the id does not have any rough edges or uneven surfaces that may indicate that the id has been altered. Always look at the customer first, and then look at the picture on the id to insure that the person is the same as on the picture. Note that although hair color and eye color may change, certain facial characteristics will not. For example, a birthmark on the face will not change. A blemish or mole on the face will not change; the customer's shape of their eyes will not change. Look for these identifying characteristics on the person and then the picture for verification.

As an alcohol server, you should know the laws and regulations concerning the serving and consumption of alcohol within licensed establishments. Serving minors and intoxicated persons is unlawful and may result in criminal penalties. Anyone serving alcoholic beverages to a minor could result in a criminal charge and conviction of the sale of alcoholic beverages to a minor. Such a conviction could result in the revocation of your server permit and could prohibit you from serving or selling alcoholic beverages for a period of eight (8) years or having any ownership interest in a business selling alcohol and/or beer for a period of ten (10) years.

The same applies to the sale of alcoholic beverages to a visibly intoxicated person. If an intoxicated person, after leaving our establishment, should be involved in an accident, anyone who may be injured may file a lawsuit against you and/or the Company.

allowed to leave the restaurant. You, as a server of alcoholic beverages, are the front line barrier to any violation of a sale to a minor or sale to an intoxicated person. The responsibility primarily falls upon your shoulders to prevent such an action from occurring. Consequences can be severe if you fail to enforce these laws.

For the safety of our customers and for the continued compliance of all alcohol laws, please use these steps in this training and in the training from the TABC class and be observant to insure that neither minors nor visibly intoxicated persons will be served alcoholic beverages.

Responsible Service

Responsible Service and Alcohol Awareness Training are essential to safeguarding our business, With the privilege of serving alcohol comes the responsibility of providing a safe atmosphere to all Guests in the establishment. Remember: the safety of each Guest ensures the safety of all Guests.

Checking Ids:

You must ALWAYS ask to see an acceptable form of ID for any Guest who orders alcohol. Ask if they are 21 or older before you ask for ID.

Commonly Accepted Forms of Identification:

- Valid driver's license
- Valid state-issued ID card
- U.S. active-duty military ID
- Passport
- Alien registration card or green card

What to Look For:

- Verify the Information – if unable to verify, refuse service
- Check for signs of alteration
- Establish ID ownership – (does the photo match the person?)

NOTE: Expired ID is never considered acceptable

Tips for Responsible Service:

- Begin each shift knowing the legal drinking age as of that day.
- Always be sure to ask the Guest to take the ID out of his or her wallet.
- Ask yourself these questions:
  - Is this a state-recognized ID?
  - Does the picture look like the person in front of you? Is the birth date correct?
  - Does it look as if the ID has been altered?

If you can answer each of these questions, then you have done a good job by checking the ID. If you have a concern about any of these items, then you cannot serve your Guest alcohol and you must notify your Manager immediately.

Safeguarding your Guests

How alcohol affect the body can vary slightly among Guests but by being aware of the certain factors and watching for behavioral clues you can better monitor consumption. The goal is to maintain a safe environment and not let a Guest become intoxicated.

Factors to Consider:

- Physical Size
- Rate of Alcohol Consumption
- Standard Service Sizes
- Consumption of Food
- Drug Use

As a server of alcohol, your first priority is to provide excellent customer service, thus, refusing service can be awkward. It is important to find a balance between serving responsibility and providing good customer service. When you talk to any Guest, it is important to communicate clearly. Guests appreciate servers who are polite, honest and knowledgeable. The key to success is to remain polite and professional without being vague or avoiding the issue. One of the best tools you have for maintaining control is to us “I” statements. By phrasing your statements in the first person “I”, you move the focus off of the Guest and onto you as the server. This shifts the conversation away from the negative (what the Guest can’t do) to the positive (what you as the server can do). Also, provide a reason for your actions. Here is a sample list of reasons you might use to refuse service.

- “It is against the law for me to serve you alcohol right now”
- “I have to see a valid form of ID before I can serve you alcohol”
- “I am concerned about your safety if I server you another drink”

If you find yourself wavering remind yourself of the following:

- It is in the best interest of the Guest not to be served.
- People are depending on you to do what is right rather than what is easy.

You are expected to check all IDs and refuse service when necessary. Always involve your manager on duty either immediately before or immediately after you deny someone service. In fact, Managers need to be involved in all alcohol related situations. All situation that involves refusal of service to an intoxicated Guest must be documented. Remember, the privilege of serving alcohol, also carries the responsibility of providing a safe atmosphere to all Guests in your establishment. The safety of all your Guests is one of the most important responsibilities that you as an employee.

No one who is visibly intoxicated or is under the age of 21 is to be served alcohol.

INFORMATION SHEET for BEER PERMIT APPLICATION

- Permits shall be issued to the owner of the business, whether a person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, syndicate, or association.
- A permit is valid only for the business of the owner named in the permit.
- If the business operates through a managing agent and the owner changes managing agents, it shall notify the Beer Board in writing within 30 days of the change and shall supply the name, address, driver's license number and phone number of the new managing agent. (For your convenience, a blank "change of managing agent" form has been provided in the packet).
- Periodic renewal of beer permits is not required; however, there will be annual inspections for the on-premises permit holders.
- A permit holder must return a permit to the county or city that issued it within fifteen (15) days of termination of the business, change in ownership, relocation of the business or change of the business name. A change in ownership occurs for a corporate owner when at least fifty percent (50%) of the stock of the corporation is transferred to a new owner.
- A permit is only for a single location and is valid for all decks, patios, and other outdoor serving areas that are contiguous to the exterior of the building in which the business is located.
- Where an owner operates two or more restaurants or other businesses within the same building, the owner may, in his or her discretion, operate some of or all such businesses under the same permit.
- The City of Franklin also has a liquor privilege tax for selling alcoholic beverages on premises. The tax is at the same rate as the State in the manner prescribed by State law and shall be collected annually.
- A copy of the sales tax certificate must be provided within 10 days of approval of the permit. If you already have it, please submit with application.
- Please note that all questions must be answered on the application. Failure to do so will only delay the process. The Beer Board will not approve any incomplete applications.
